

MONTE CARLO Club

FINEST HANDMADE CIGARS FROM NICARAGUA

Each Moment Tells a Story...

Maxime Navarre, Swiss and French, discovered the world of cigars shortly before turning thirty. His Ecuadorian wife, Natalia, shares the same passion.

They cherish those rare moments that suspend time, inviting serene reflection, meaningful conversations, or the contemplation of a landscape.

Maxime and Natalia have lived for many years in Latin America, a land where the art of cigars harmonizes with the art of living it embodies.

A STORY of Encounters

Monte-Carlo Club is, above all, a story of encounters.

It is the fusion of Monte-Carlo's savoir-vivre, the cradle of La Dolce Vita, with the artisanal heritage of Central America and the Caribbean.

It is also an encounter with the Monte-Carlo lifestyle, represented by Baron Christian de Massy, son of Princess Antoinette of Monaco and grandson of Anthony Noghès, founder of the Monaco Grand Prix. As an heir to a tradition of excellence, this lineage upholds the highest standards of quality and art de vivre.

Finally, it is the meeting with Victor Calvo, a Nicaraguan cigar expert and connoisseur, at the helm of an exceptional cigar factory.

Our cigars

A LEGACY of Expertise

Our cigars are meticulously handcrafted in the traditional way, entirely rolled by hand by expert artisans.

They are Nicaraguan “puros” with Ecuadorian Sumatra wrappers. Each cigar embodies timeless craftsmanship and our obsession with quality.

Sourced from Estelí, the most renowned hub of Nicaraguan cigar craftsmanship, our cigars offer a unique tasting experience.

THE UNIQUE PERSONALITY of Our Cigars

medium to full-bodied smoke, with notes of freshly roasted coffee and delicate hints of spice. The draw is effortless, and the burn is impeccable—our cigars are perfectly balanced and crafted with an unwavering commitment to quality.

THE ART of Craftsmanship

Monte-Carlo Club cigars are the result of a carefully curated blend of exclusive tobaccos from Ecuador and Nicaragua. They are crafted with meticulous attention to detail, ensuring exceptional quality and a refined tasting experience.

THE EXCELLENCE of Nicaraguan Tobacco

The Nicaraguan tobacco used in Monte-Carlo Club cigars comes from Habano seeds and is composed of a Criollo and Corojo blend for the filler. This tobacco is renowned worldwide for its rich aroma, largely due to the franco-clay soil—a balanced mix of sand, silt, and clay.

This soil, similar to that of Havana, Cuba, nurtures tobacco plants with high-quality leaves, offering complex and nuanced flavors.

A WRAPPER OF EXCELLENCE from Ecuadorian Terroirs

Our cigars are wrapped in an Ecuadorian Habano wrapper, selected for its consistent burn and refined sheen. The binder, from Ecuadorian Sumatra, provides a well-balanced structure to the cigar.

CHARACTERISTICS of the formats

Monte-Carlo Club cigars are available in several formats (Short Robusto, Robusto, Toro, and Churchill), yet they share an identical blend. The only difference is in the proportion of components, adjusted to maintain a consistent balance across all vitola sizes.

WRAPPER

Ecuadorian Habano (identical across all formats).

STRENGTH

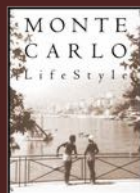

Medium Body Cigar.

TASTING EVOLUTION

A consistent construction ensures a stable intensity throughout the smoke, with a slight increase in strength in the final third (medium to full).

AROMATIC NOTES

A subtle spicy touch on the palate, due to the Nicaraguan Habano tobacco. Depending on individual preferences, woody, leathery, and spicy aromas can be detected, along with notes of coffee and chocolate.
